

About Shanghai Huali Microelectronics

Founded in 2010, Shanghai Huali Microelectronics Corporate (HLMC) is a leading 300mm pure-play wafer foundry in China. HLMC owns a 300mm fab with the capacity of 35K wafers per month and is constructing the second 300mm fab with the capacity of 40K wafers per month. HLMC offers a broad selection of technologies across 55nm to 28nm and focuses on differentiated process technologies such as RF, HV, eFlash, ULP, NOR flash and CMOS Image Sensor for a wide range of applications. HLMC is devoted to providing customers with advanced process technologies and comprehensive foundry services. Learn more about HLMC online at www.hlmc.cn.
