2019 Interim Results

The directors (the “Directors”) of Zhejiang Expressway Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) announced the unaudited consolidated results of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively the “Group”) for the six months ended June 30, 2019 (the “Period”), with the basis of preparation as stated in note 1 set out below.

During the Period, revenue for the Group was Rmb5,722.10 million, representing a year-on-year increase of 6.2%. Profit attributable to owners of the Company was Rmb1,977.61 million, representing a year-on-year increase of 7.8%. Basic earnings per share for the Period was Rmb45.53 cents, representing a year-on-year increase of 7.8%. Diluted earnings per share for the Period was Rmb44.47 cents, representing a year-on-year increase of 17.1%.

The Directors do not recommend the payment of an interim dividend for 2019.

The interim report of the Group for the six months ended June 30, 2019 has not been audited or reviewed by the auditors of the Company but has been reviewed by the audit committee of the Company.

Business Review

In the first half of 2019, the Chinese economy maintained stable growth with a positive outlook, despite the relatively complicated macroeconomic conditions both in China and abroad. As the economy in China continued to evolve, national GDP rose 6.3% year-on-year. During the Period, Zhejiang Province's GDP rose 7.1% year-on-year, which was 0.8 percentage points higher than the national rate. The total output value of services, consumption, imports and exports, and digital economy in Zhejiang Province increased 8.3%, 9.3%, 5.7% and 11.6% year-on-year, respectively, which drove the province's overall economy to achieve medium-to-high growth.

During the Period, global economy and trade slowed as a result of a number of uncertainties in the international markets. Meanwhile, the Chinese economy is still facing prominent structural problems and downward pressure. The traffic volume on the Group's expressways continued to grow, but at a slower pace. Revenue from Zheshang Securities increased as supported by the pick-up in the Chinese capital markets. The Group's total revenue was Rmb5,722.10 million, representing an increase of 6.2% year-on-year, of which Rmb3,882.34 million was generated by the seven major expressways operated by the Group, representing an increase of 2.4% year-on-year and 67.8% of total revenue. The revenue generated by the securities business was Rmb1,641.22 million, representing an increase of 8.4% year-on-year and 28.7% of the total revenue.

Business Review

Toll Road Operations

During the Period, traffic volume on the Group's expressways experienced solid organic growth, benefitting from Zhejiang Province's favorable economic development. The varied rates of growth reflect the different regions in which the seven expressways are located.

The traffic volume on a number of the Group's expressways increased, benefitting from an adjustment of toll collection rules made by the Yuhang District Government and the Lin'an District Government of Hangzhou City, as well as the Yiwu Municipal Government.

Business Review

According to the new rules, during a two-year period that started on September 28, 2017, the Yuhang District Government pays the toll between the Yuhang and Hangzhou sections of the Shanghai-Hangzhou Expressway for all Hangzhou passenger vehicles that have ETC registration. In addition, for a two-year period that started on September 15, 2018, the Yiwu Municipal Government pays the toll for all passenger vehicles that have ETC registration and are travelling on expressways within the border of Yiwu. For a one-year period that started on January 1, 2019, the Lin'an District Government also pays the toll for all passenger vehicles that have ETC registration and are travelling on the Hangzhou-Lin'an section of the Hanghui Expressway.

In addition, the "Regulations on Overloaded Trucks on Expressways" in Zhejiang Province were implemented on January 1, 2019. The new policy served to boost truck traffic on the Group's expressways.

During the Period, the following factors had a negative impact on the traffic volume and toll income on the Group's expressways.

For a two-year period that started on January 1, 2019, all qualified trucks that are in compliance with regulations and use Zhejiang Province's non-cash payment cards or ETC cards enjoy a 15% discount on tolls on a trial basis when travelling on the state-owned expressways of Zhejiang Province. The new rule caused a decrease in the overall toll income on the Group's expressways.

The traffic volume on the Shanghai-Hangzhou section of the Shanghai-Hangzhou-Ningbo Expressway was adversely impacted by the completion of construction of the Yuhang section of the Hangzhou urban elevated highway and the National Highway G320, which is parallel to the section, while the traffic control on the F Ramp of the Hongken Hub in the Xiaoshan District of Hangzhou City affected traffic volume on the Hangzhou-Ningbo section of the Shanghai-Hangzhou-Ningbo Expressway.

The Zhangzhen toll station on National Highway G104, which is parallel to the Shangsang Expressway, ceased toll collection on June 1, 2018, which negatively affected traffic volume on the Shangsang Expressway.

In addition, the Hangzhou-Huangshan High-speed Railway opened on December 25, 2018, which caused a decrease in passenger vehicle volume on the Huihang and Hanghui Expressways.

Business Review

During the Period, 20 days of cut-off construction on the Lianshi-Hangzhou Section of the Shenjiahuhang Expressway, and road construction in the surrounding areas, resulted in a decrease in traffic volume on the Shenjiahuhang Expressway.

During the Period, total toll revenue from the 248km Shanghai-Hangzhou-Ningbo Expressway, the 142km Shangsang Expressway, the 70km Jinhua Section of the Ningbo-Jinhua Expressway, the 122km Hanghui Expressway, the 82km Huihang Expressway, the 93km Shenjiahuhang Expressway and the 46km Zhoushan Bay Bridge was Rmb3,882.34 million.

During the Period, the daily average traffic volume in full-trip equivalents, toll revenue and the corresponding year-on-year growth rates on the Group's expressways are listed in the table below:

The Group's Expressways	Traffic Volume		Toll
	Average Traffic Volume in Full-Trip Equivalents (Vehicle)	Year-on-year Growth	Toll Revenue (Rmb million)	Year-on-year Growth
Shanghai-Hangzhou-Ningbo Expressway	60,737	0.9%	1,997.26	3.4%
- Shanghai-Hangzhou Section	60,832	-4.4%
- Hangzhou-Ningbo Section	60,670	4.2%

Usages of the Net Proceeds	Excepted timeline for utilizing the unutilized Net Proceeds	Percentage of the expected usages
Daily operating expenses	From July, 1 2019 to December 31, 2020	100%

Note: The expected timeline for utilizing the unutilized Net Proceeds is based on the best estimation of the future market conditions made by the Group. It will be subject to change based on the current and future development of market conditions.

Outlook

In the first half of 2019, amid the slowdown in the global economy and intensified trade frictions, China's economy continued to make steady progress as it continued its transition to high-quality development. Looking ahead to the second half of 2019, it is expected that the economy will continue to face downward pressure as the economic landscape at home and abroad remains complicated. The overall toll income on the Group's expressways is expected to continue to grow, but at a slower rate.

Given that China has announced that it will remove expressway toll stations on provincial borders, the Company will continue to promote the construction of ETC lanes to enhance traffic efficiency at its toll stations, improve its expressway service capabilities, and deepen its efforts to build up the Company brand. The Company will also speed up the implementation of intelligent applications for the Shanghai-Hangzhou-Ningbo Expressway and improve its big data analytic capabilities for road networks, with an aim to increase traffic volume, assure safe and smooth traffic flow, and actively strengthen the Company's core competitiveness in intelligent expressways.

As China further improves its capital markets and steadily opens up its capital account, the Group anticipates that new opportunities will present themselves for its securities business. Zhesang Securities will exercise prudent judgment and thoroughly understand policy guidance as it actively pushes forward with its business transformation, continues to achieve advantages in financial services with its own characteristics, strengthens its differential competitiveness and improves its influence in the market.

In the second half of 2019, the management of the Company will focus on improving its service quality and business operations, and consolidating its core business while exploring new opportunities. In particular, the Company will continue to strengthen its main toll road business and make sure that all of its expressway toll stations on provincial borders are removed as scheduled to provide a better experience for passengers and drivers, and make a greater contribution to the country's social and economic development. For the securities business, the Company will continue to grow and optimize its business and fully improve its core competitiveness. The Company will also seek suitable investment opportunities through diversified channels to further expand its asset base and profitability.

Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

1. BASIS OF PREPARATION

The condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Accounting Standard 34 Interim Financial Reporting issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the “HKICPA”) as well as with the applicable disclosure requirements of Appendix 16 to the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Listing Rules”).

2. MERGER ACCOUNTING RESTATEMENT

On December 13, 2018, the Company entered into an equity purchase agreement with Zhejiang Communications Investment Group Co., Ltd. (“Communications Group”) to acquire 100% equity interest in Zhejiang Shenjiahuhang Expressway Co., Ltd. (“Shenjiahuhang Co”) from Communications Group for a cash consideration of Rmb2,943,000,000. Shenjiahuhang Co and its subsidiary are principally engaged in the operation and management of Huzhou (S12) and Lianhang (S13) sections of Shenjiahuhang Expressway and Zhoushan Bay Bridge (G9211) within National Expressway Network. Before the above acquisition, Shenjiahuhang Co was a wholly owned subsidiary of Communications Group. The acquisition has been approved by independent shareholders on March 4, 2019 and subsequently completed on April 9, 2019. After the completion of the acquisition, Shenjiahuhang Co then became a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

On June 5, 2019, the Company entered into an equity transfer agreement with a wholly-owned subsidiary of Communications Group, Zhejiang Shipping Group Co., Ltd. (“Zhejiang Shipping”), to acquire 100% equity interest in Zhejiang Grand Hotel Limited (“Zhejiang Grand Hotel”) from Zhejiang Shipping for a cash consideration of Rmb1,010,144,600. Zhejiang Grand Hotel is principally engaged in the operation of hotel, retail, rental and food and beverages businesses. Before the above acquisition, Zhejiang Grand Hotel was a wholly owned subsidiary of Zhejiang Shipping. The acquisition was completed on June 14, 2019. After the completion of the acquisition, Zhejiang Grand Hotel then became a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

Since Communications Group is the parent company of the Company, the above acquisitions were regarded as business combinations involving entities under common control and were accounted for using merger accounting method, in accordance with the guidance set out in Accounting Guideline 5 “Merger Accounting for Common Control Combinations” issued by the HKICPA.

As a result, the comparative condensed consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income and condensed consolidated statement of cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2018 and the consolidated statement of financial position as at December 31, 2018 have therefore been restated, in order to include the profits, assets and liabilities of the combining entities since the date on which they first come under common control.

2. MERGER ACCOUNTING RESTATEMENT (Continued)

The adoption of merger accounting method in respect of the Group's acquisition of 100% equity interest in Shenjiahuhang Co and Zhejiang Grand Hotel, has resulted in an increase in total comprehensive income attributable to owners of the Company and an increase in profit attributable to owners of the Company for the six months ended June 30, 2018 by Rmb22,831,000 and Rmb22,831,000, respectively.

The effect of the adoption of merger accounting method in respect of the Group's acquisition of 100% equity interest in Shenjiahuhang Co and Zhejiang Grand Hotel described above on the condensed consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income for the six months ended June 30, 2018 by line items is as follows:

3. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair value.

Application of new and amendments to HKFRSs

In the Period, the Group has applied, for the first time, the following new and amendments to HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA which are mandatory effective for the annual period beginning on or after January 1, 2019 for the preparation of the Group's condensed consolidated financial statements:

HKFRS 16	Leases
HK(IFRIC)-Int 23	Uncertainty over Income Tax Treatments
Amendments to HKFRS 9	Prepayment Features with Negative Compensation
Amendments to HKAS 19	Plan Amendment, Curtailment or Settlement
Amendments to HKAS 28	Long-term Interests in Associates and Joint Ventures
Amendments to HKFRSs	Annual Improvements to HKFRSs 2015-2017 Cycle

Except as described below, the application of the new and amendments to HKFRSs in the Period has had no material effect on the Group's financial performance and positions for the current and prior periods and/or on the disclosures set out in these condensed consolidated financial statements.

Impacts and changes in accounting policies of application on HKFRS 16 Leases

The Group has applied HKFRS 16 for the first time in the Period. HKFRS 16 superseded HKAS 17 Leases ("HKAS 17"), and the related interpretations. The Group applied the following accounting policies in accordance with the transition provisions of HKFRS 16.

Definition of a lease

A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

For contracts entered into or modified on or after the date of initial application, the Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease based on the definition under HKFRS 16 at inception or modification date. Such contract will not be reassessed unless the terms and conditions of the contract are subsequently changed.

Impacts and changes in accounting policies of application on HKFRS 16 Leases (Continued)

As a lessee

Short-term leases

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to properties leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option. Lease payments on short-term leases are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Right-of-use assets

Except for short-term leases, the Group recognises right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease (i.e. the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

The cost of right-of-use asset includes:

- the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received;
- any initial direct costs incurred by the Group; and
- an estimate of costs to be incurred by the Group in dismantling and removing the underlying assets, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease.

Right-of-use assets in which the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term is depreciated from commencement date to the end of the useful life. Otherwise, right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life and the lease term.

The Group presents right-of-use assets as a separate line item on the condensed consolidated statement of financial position.

Leasehold land and building

For payments of a property interest which includes both leasehold land and building elements, the entire property is presented as property, plant and equipment of the Group when the payments cannot be allocated reliably between the leasehold land and building elements.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits paid are accounted under HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments ("HKFRS 9") and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments and included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of a lease, the Group recognizes and measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are unpaid at that date. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date as the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable.

The lease payments include:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable;
- variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate;
- amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group; and
- payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate.

Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

After the commencement date, lease liabilities are adjusted by interest accretion and lease payments.

The Group remeasures lease liabilities (and makes a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use assets) whenever:

- the lease term has changed or there is a change in the assessment of exercise of a purchase option, in which case the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the date of reassessment.
- the lease payments change due to changes in market rental rates following a market rent review, in which cases the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using the initial discount rate.

Lease modifications

The Group accounts for a lease modification as a separate lease if:

- the modification increases the scope of the lease by adding the right to use one or more underlying assets; and
- the consideration for the leases increases by an amount commensurate with the stand-alone price for the increase in scope and any appropriate adjustments to that stand-alone price to reflect the circumstances of the particular contract.

For a lease modification that is not accounted for as a separate lease, the Group remeasures the lease liability based on the lease term of the modified lease by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

Taxation

For the purposes of measuring deferred tax for leasing transactions in which the Group recognises the right-of-use assets and the related lease liabilities, the Group first determines whether the tax deductions are attributable to the right-of-use assets or the lease liabilities.

For leasing transactions in which the tax deductions are attributable to the lease liabilities, the Group applies HKAS 12 Income Taxes requirements to right-of-use assets and lease liabilities separately. Temporary differences relating to right-of-use assets and lease liabilities are not recognised at initial recognition and over the lease terms due to application of the initial recognition exemption.

Impacts and changes in accounting policies of application on HKFRS 16 Leases (Continued)

As a lessor

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits received are accounted under HKFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments from lessees.

Lease modification

The Group accounts for a modification to an operating lease as a new lease from the effective date of the modification, considering any prepaid or accrued lease payments relating to the original lease as part of the lease payments for the new lease.

Transition and summary of effects arising from initial application of HKFRS 16

The Group has elected the practical expedient to apply HKFRS 16 to contracts that were previously identified as leases applying HKAS 17 and HK(IFRIC)-Int 4 Determining whether an Arrangement contains a Lease and not apply this standards to contracts that were not previously identified as containing a lease. Therefore, the Group has not reassessed contracts which already existed prior to the date of initial application.

For contracts entered into or modified on or after January 1, 2019, the Group applies the definition of a lease in accordance with the requirements set out in HKFRS 16 in assessing whether a contract contains a lease.

Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

Transition and summary of effects arising from initial application of HKFRS 16 (Continued)

As a lessee

The Group has applied HKFRS 16 retrospectively with the cumulative effect recognised at the date of initial application, January 1, 2019. As at January 1, 2019, the Group recognised additional lease liabilities and right-of-use assets at amounts equal to the related lease liabilities adjusted by any prepaid lease payments by applying HKFRS16C8(b)(iii) transition.

When applying the modified retrospective approach under HKFRS 16 at transition, the Group applied the following practical expedients to leases previously classified as operating leases under HKAS 17, on lease-by-lease basis, to the extent relevant to the respective lease contracts:

- i. relied on the assessment of whether leases are onerous by applying HKAS 37 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets as an alternative of impairment review;
- ii. elected not to recognise right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for leases with lease term ends within 12 months of the date of initial application;
- iii. excluded initial direct costs from measuring the right-of-use assets at the date of initial application;
- iv. used hindsight based on facts and circumstances as at date of initial application in determining the lease term for the Group's leases with extension and termination options.

On transition, the Group has made the following adjustments upon application of HKFRS 16:

The Group recognised lease liabilities of Rmb270,155,000 and right-of-use assets of Rmb389,605,000 at January 1, 2019.

When recognising the lease liabilities for leases previously classified as operating leases, the Group has applied incremental borrowing rates of the relevant group entities at the date of initial application. The weighted average incremental borrowing rates applied by relevant group entities range from 4.7512% to 5.0284%.

As a lessor

In accordance with the transitional provisions in HKFRS 16, the Group is not required to make any adjustment on transition for leases in which the Group is a lessor but account for these leases in accordance with HKFRS 16 from the date of initial application and comparative information has not been restated.

- (a) Upon application of HKFRS 16, new lease contracts entered into but commence after the date of initial application relating to the same underlying assets under existing lease contracts are accounted as if the existing leases are modified as at January 1, 2019. The application has had no impact on the Group's condensed consolidated statement of financial position at January 1, 2019.
- (b) Before application of HKFRS 16, refundable rental deposits received were considered as rights and obligations under leases to which HKAS 17 applied. Based on the definition of lease payments under HKFRS 16, such deposits are not payments relating to the right-of-use assets and were adjusted to reflect the discounting effect at transition. However, the management considered the impact insignificant and therefore such deposits were not adjusted to reflect the discounting effect at transition.

Convertible bonds

Convertible bonds contain equity component

The component parts of the convertible bonds are classified separately as financial liability and equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument. A conversion option that will be settled by the exchange of a fixed amount of cash or another financial asset for a fixed number of the company's own equity instruments is an equity instrument.

At the date of issue, the fair value of the liability component (including any embedded non-equity derivatives features) is estimated by measuring the fair value of similar liability that does not have an associated equity component.

A conversion option classified as equity is determined by deducting the amount of the liability component from the fair value of the compound instrument as a whole. This is recognised and included in equity, net of income tax effects, and is not subsequently remeasured. In addition, the conversion option classified as equity will remain in equity until the conversion option is exercised, in which case, the balance recognised in equity will be transferred to share capital and share premium. Where the conversion option remains unexercised at the maturity date of the convertible bond, the balance recognised in equity will be transferred to retained profits. No gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss upon conversion or expiration of the conversion option.

Transaction costs that relate to the issue of the convertible bonds are allocated to the liability and equity components in proportion to the allocation of the gross proceeds. Transaction costs relating to the equity component are charged directly to equity. Transaction costs relating to the liability component are included in the carrying amount of the liability portion and amortised over the period of the convertible bonds using the effective interest method.

11. LOANS TO CUSTOMERS ARISING FROM MARGIN FINANCING BUSINESS

The Group has provided customers with margin financing and security lending for securities transactions, the credit facility limits to margin clients are determined by the discounted market value of the pledged securities accepted by the Group or the market value of cash collaterals.

All of the loans to margin clients which are secured by the underlying pledged securities are interest bearing. The Group maintains a list of approved stocks for margin lending at a specified loan to collateral ratio. Any excess in the lending ratio will trigger a margin call which the customers have to make good of the shortfall. The Group has the right to process forced liquidation if the customer fails to make good of the shortfall within a short period of time.

As at June 30, 2019, loans to customers under the margin financing and securities lending activities carried out in the PRC were secured by the customers' stock securities, bonds, funds and cash collaterals. The undiscounted market value of the stock securities, bonds and funds collaterals were amounted to Rmb20,657,947,000 (December 31, 2018: Rmb14,260,228,000). Sales and repurchase agreements are transactions in which the Group sells a security and simultaneously agrees to repurchase it (or an asset that is substantially the same) at a fixed price on a future date. Since the repurchase prices are fixed, the Group is still exposed to substantially all the credit risks and market risks and rewards of those securities sold. These securities are not derecognised from the financial statements but regarded as "collateral" for the liabilities because the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of these securities. In addition, the cash received is recognised as financial liability.

As at June 30, 2019, the Group entered into repurchase agreements with certain counterparties. The proceeds from selling such securities are presented as financial assets sold under repurchase agreements. Because the Group sells the contractual rights to the cash flows of the securities, it does not have the ability to use the transferred securities during the term of the arrangement.

(ii) Redemption at the option of the Company

The Company may, having given not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice, redeem the Convertible Bond I in whole and not some only at 100 percent of their outstanding principal amount as at the relevant redemption date:

- (a) at any time after April 21, 2020 but prior to the Maturity Date I, provided that no such redemption may be made unless the closing price of an H share translated into Euro at the prevailing rate applicable to each Stock Exchange business day, for any 20 Stock Exchange business days within a period of 30 consecutive Stock Exchange business days, the last of such Stock Exchange business day shall occur not more than 10 days prior to the date upon which notice of such redemption is given, was, for each such 20 Stock Exchange business days, at least 130 percent of the Conversion Price I (translated into Euro at the Fixed Exchange Rate); or
- (b) if at any time the aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Bond I outstanding is less than 10 percent of the aggregate principal amount originally issued.

(iii) Redemption at the option of the Bondholders I

The Company will, at the option of the Bondholders I, redeem whole or some of that holder's bond on April 21, 2020 (the "Put Option Date") at 100 percent of their outstanding principal amount on the Put Option Date.

The Convertible Bond I comprises two components:

- (1) Debt component was initially measured at fair value amounted to approximately Euro297,801,000 (equivalent to Rmb2,190,578,000). It is subsequently measured at amortised cost by applying effective interest rate method after considering the effect of the transaction costs. The effective interest rate used is 4.28%.
- (2) Derivative component comprises conversion right of the Bondholders I, redemption option of the Company, and redemption option of the Bondholders I.

Transaction costs totalling Rmb16,725,000 that relate to the issue of the Convertible Bond I are allocated to the (including conversion right and redemption options) components in proportion to their respective fair values. Transaction costs amounting to approximately Euro419,000 (equivalent to Rmb3,079,000) relating to the derivative component were charged to profit or loss of the corresponding period of 2017. Transaction costs amounting to approximately Euro1,855,000 (equivalent to Rmb13,646,000) relating to the debt component are included in the carrying amount of the debt portion and amortised over the period of the Convertible Bond I using the effective interest method.

The derivative component was measured at fair value with reference to valuation carried out by a firm of independent professional valuers.

The movement of the debt and derivative components of the Convertible Bond I for the Period is set out as below:

	Debt component at amortised cost		Derivative components at FVTPL		Total

Convertible bond denominated in Rmb

On March 12, 2019, Zheshang Securities, a subsidiary of the Company, issued a convertible bond due 2025 in an aggregate principal amount of Rmb3,500,000,000 (the "Convertible Bond II"). The Convertible Bond II was listed on Shanghai Stock Exchange. The coupon rate is 0.2% for the first year, 0.5% for the second year, 1.0% for the third year, 1.5% for the fourth year, 1.8% for the fifth year, 2.0% for the sixth year, and will be paid annually.

Zhejiang Shangsang Expressway Co., Ltd. ("Shangsang Co"), a subsidiary of the Group, subscribed the Convertible Bond II with a principal of Rmb875,000,000 upon issuance of Convertible Bond II, and sold part of which to independent third parties through the open market subsequently during the Period.

The principal terms of the Convertible Bond II are set out below:

(1) Conversion right

The Convertible Bond II will, at the option of the holders of the Convertible Bond II ("Bondholders II"), be convertible (unless previously redeemed, converted or purchased and cancelled) during the period from September 19, 2019 up to March 11, 2025, into fully paid ordinary shares with a par value of Rmb1.00 each at an initial conversion price (the "Conversion Price II") of Rmb12.53 per share. The Conversion Price II will be adjusted when Zheshang Securities distributes stock dividends, capitalizes common reserves into share capital, issues new shares or places new shares, distributes cash dividend (excluding the increase in share capital due to the conversion of the Convertible Bond II issued). When the share price of Zheshang Securities is less than 80% of the Conversion Price II for any 15 business days within a period of 30 consecutive business days prior to the maturity date of the Convertible Bond II (the "Maturity Date II"), the board of directors of Zheshang Securities has the right to propose a downward revision resolution on Conversion Price II, and submits it to the shareholder's meeting of Zheshang Securities for approval. As at June 30, 2019, the latest Conversion Price II was Rmb12.46 per share.

(2) Redemption rights

(i) Redemption at maturity

Zheshang Securities will redeem all outstanding Convertible Bond II at 105 percent of its outstanding principal amount (including the last instalment of interest payment) within five business days from Maturity Date II.

Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

(2) Redemption rights (Continued)

(ii) Redemption on condition

During the conversion period of the Convertible Bond II, upon the occurrence of any of the following two conditions, Zheshang Securities is entitled to redeem all or part of the outstanding Convertible Bond II based on the par value and interest in arrears;

- (a) During the conversion period of the Convertible Bond II, for any 15 business days within a period of 30 consecutive business days, the closing share price of Zheshang Securities is not less than 130 percent (including 130 percent) of the Conversion Price II;
- (b) when the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Convertible Bond II is less than Rmb30,000,000.

At initial recognition, the equity component of the Convertible Bond II was separated from the debt component. The equity component is recorded as non-controlling interests. The early redemption option is considered as closely related to the debt component.

Changes in the debt component of the Convertible Bond II since the issuance of Convertible Bond II to June 30, 2019 are set out as below:

	As at June 30, 2019 Rmb'000
Balance on issuance day	2,211,479
Issue cost	(10,126)
Interest charge	31,350
Addition (Note)	273,929
Closing balance (Unaudited)	2,506,632

Note : Shangsang Co subscribed the Convertible Bond II with a principal of Rmb875,000,000 upon issuance of Convertible Bond II, and sold part of which to independent third parties through the open market subsequently during the Period.

As at June 30, 2019, none of the Bondholders II has exercised any conversion rights and Zheshang Securities has not exercised the redemption rights as well.

Others

The Group operates in an economic environment currently predominated by entities directly or indirectly owned or controlled by the PRC government (“government-related entities”). In addition, the Group itself is part of a larger group of companies under the Communications Group which is controlled by the PRC government. However, due to the business nature, in respect of the Group’s toll road and securities business, the Directors are of the opinion that it is impracticable to ascertain the identity of counterparties and accordingly whether the transactions are with other government-related entities in the PRC.

In addition, the Group has entered into other banking transactions, including deposit placements, borrowings and other general banking facilities, with certain banks and financial institution which are government-related entities in its ordinary course of business. In view of the nature of those banking transactions, the Directors are of the opinion that separate disclosure would not be meaningful.

(2) Transactions and balances with an associate and a joint venture

Financial service provided by Zhejiang Communications Investment Group Finance Co., Ltd. (“Zhejiang Communications Finance”, an associate of the Company)

The Group has entered into a financial services agreement with Zhejiang Communications Finance. Pursuant to the agreement, Zhejiang Communications Finance agreed to provide the Group with deposit services, the loan and financial leasing services, the clearing services and other financial services.
