- (2) the Company does not receive any declaration from any person other than the applicant requesting registration as the shareholder of such shares before the Company determines to issue (a) replacement share certificate(s);
- (3) if the Company decides to issue (a) replacement share certificate(s) to the applicant, an announcement of such intention to issue replacement share certificate(s) shall be published in the newspapers designated by the board of directors; the period for such announcement shall be 90 days and such announcement shall be published at least once every 30 days during such period.
- (4) prior to the publishing of the announcement for the issue of (a) replacement certificate(s), the Company shall submit a copy of such proposed announcement to the stock exchange on which it is listed and shall obtain the reply of such stock exchange confirming that such announcement has been published at the stock exchange and such publication shall last until the expiry of 90 days from the date of receipt of such announcement. If the consent to the application for (a) replacement certificate(s) has not been obtained from the registered shareholder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall send to such shareholder by post a copy of such proposed announcement.
- (5) upon the expiry of the 90-day period for the publication of the said announcement as provided in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this Article, if no objection has been received by the Company from any person to the replacement of such certificate(s), (a) replacement share certificate(s) shall be issued pursuant to the applicant’s application.
- (6) upon issuing (a) replacement share certificate(s) pursuant to this Article, the Company shall immediately cancel the Original Certificate(s) and such cancellation and replacement shall be registered in the register of shareholders.

- (7) all costs incurred by the Company in connection with the cancellation of the Original Certificates and issuing replacement share certificates shall be borne by the applicant. Unless the applicant provides reasonable security, the Company shall be entitled to refuse to take any action.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 41)

Article 45 Upon the issuance by the Company of (a) replacement share certificate(s) pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter, the name (description) of a bona fide purchaser who acquired the new share certificate(s) as aforesaid or a shareholder who is subsequently registered as the owner of such shares (if being a bona fide purchaser) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 42)

Article 46 The Company shall have no liability for any loss sustained by any person as a result of the cancellation of the Original Certificates or in issuing replacement share certificates, unless it can be proved that the Company has acted fraudulently.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 43)

Chapter 7 Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Article 47 A shareholder of the Company is a holder of share(s) of the Company in accordance with relevant laws and whose name (description) is entered in the register of shareholders.

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of shareholders shall be conclusive evidence of the ownership of the shares of the Company.

A shareholder shall have rights and obligations in accordance with the class and the number of shares held by him; the shareholders of the same class of shares shall have the same rights and shall bear the same obligations.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 44)

Article 48 A holder of ordinary shares of the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

- (1) to receive dividends and other forms of profit distribution in accordance with the number of shares he holds;
- (2) to attend and to vote at shareholders' general meetings personally or by proxy;
- (3) to supervise the business operation and activities of the Company, and to make proposals or inquiries in relation thereto;
- (4) to transfer shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of these Articles of Association;
- (5) to receive information in accordance with provisions of these Articles of Association, including:
  1. the obtaining of these Articles of Association upon payment of the cost thereof;

2. upon payment of reasonable charges, inspect and make copies of:
  - (i) all parts of the register of shareholders;
  - (ii) personal particulars of the directors, supervisors, and other senior managerial officers of the Company, including:
    - (a) present and former names and aliases;
    - (b) principal address (residence);
    - (c) nationality;
    - (d) full-time occupation and all other part-time occupations or positions;
    - (e) identification document and the number thereof.
  - (iii) the share capital of the Company;
  - (iv) a report on the total nominal value, amount, highest and lowest prices and all payments made by the Company in respect of each class of shares repurchased by the Company since the last financial year;
  - (v) minutes of shareholders' meetings.
- (6) to participate in the distribution of the remaining assets in accordance with his shareholding upon the dissolution or liquidation of the Company;
- (7) other rights conferred by these Articles of Association, and relevant laws and regulations.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 45)

Article 48A The Company shall not exercise any powers to freeze or otherwise impair any of the rights attaching to any share of the Company by reason only that the person or persons who are interested directly or indirectly therein have failed to disclose their interests to the Company.

Article 49 A holder of ordinary share(s) of the Company shall undertake the following obligations:

- (1) to observe these Articles of Association;
- (2) to pay the subscription price in accordance with the number of shares subscribed for and in the manner of subscription;
- (3) other obligations provided by laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Shareholders shall not be liable to make any further contribution to the share capital other than as agreed at the time of subscription.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 46)

Article 50 Save for the obligations required under the laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of a recognized stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed, in exercising its rights as a shareholder, a controlling shareholder shall not exercise his voting rights to make decisions which would prejudice the interests of all or some of the shareholders in respect of the following matters:

- (1) to exempt the directors or supervisors from their obligation to act in good faith and in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) to authorize the directors or supervisors (in the interests of himself or themselves or other persons) to deprive the Company in any manner of its assets, including but not limited to any opportunities beneficial to the Company;
- (3) to authorize the directors or supervisors (in the interests of himself or themselves or other persons) to deprive the personal rights of other shareholders, including but not limited to any entitlement to distribution or voting rights but excluding reorganization of the Company approved by the shareholders in general meeting pursuant to these Articles of Association.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 47)

Article 51 The controlling shareholder referred to in the preceding Article shall mean a person who meets one of the following conditions:

- (1) such person, either acting alone or in concert with others, may elect half or more of the directors;
- (2) such person, either acting alone or in concert with others, may exercise 30% or more of the voting rights of the Company or control the exercise of 30% or more of the voting rights of the Company;
- (3) such person, either acting alone or in concert with others, may hold 30% or more of the issued shares of the Company held by the public;
- (4) such person, either acting alone or in concert-with others, may have de facto control of the Company in any other way.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 48)

Chapter 8 Shareholders' General Meetings

Article 52 The shareholders' general meeting is the governing body of the Company and it shall perform its functions in accordance with relevant laws.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 49)

Article 53 The shareholders' general meeting shall exercise the following powers:

Amended
2020/5/15

- (1) to determine the business policies and investment plans of the Company;

- (3) to elect and replace supervisors who represent the shareholders and to determine the remuneration of such supervisors;

- (4) to examine and to approve the report of the board of directors;
- (5) to examine and to approve the report of the supervisory committee;
- (6) to examine and to approve the annual financial budgets and final accounts of the Company;
- (7) to examine and to approve the plans for profit distribution and making up of losses of the Company;
- (8) to resolve on the increase or reduction in the registered capital of the Company;
- (9) to resolve on matters such as merger, division, dissolution and liquidation, etc. of the Company;
- (10) to resolve on the issue of debentures by the Company;
- (11) to amend these Articles of Association;
- (12) to examine any motion put forward by shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the Company's shares;
- (13) to resolve on the appointment, dismissal or discontinuance of appointment of the accounting firm of the Company;
- (14) other matters to be resolved in shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the requirements of pertinent laws and these Articles of Association.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 50)

Article 54 Without prior approval by the shareholders in general meeting, the Company shall not enter into any contract with persons other than a director or other senior managerial officers whereby the management of all or substantial parts of the business of the Company shall be vested in such contracting person(s).

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 51)

Article 55 Shareholders' general meetings shall be divided into annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the board of directors. Annual general meetings shall be convened once every year and shall be held within six months after the end of the preceding accounting year.

Upon the occurrence of any of the following events, the board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months thereof:

- (1) the number of directors falls below the number provided by the Company Law or less than two-thirds of the number required by these Articles of Association;
- (2) the aggregate losses of the Company which have not been made up amount to one-third of the total share capital of the Company;

- (3) shareholders holding an aggregate of 10% or more of the issued shares of the Company which carry the rights to vote request in writing the convening of an extraordinary general meeting;
- (4) whenever the board of directors considers necessary or the supervisory committee proposes to convene the same.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 52)

Article 56 An annual general meeting shall be convened by a notice of 20 days prior to the meeting to inform the shareholders of the time and place of the meeting and matters to be considered; an extraordinary general meeting shall be convened by a notice of 15 days prior to the meeting to inform the shareholders of the time and place of that meeting and matters to be considered. Amended 2020/5/15

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 53)

Article 57 Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the Company's shares shall have the right to raise interim proposals and submit them in writing to the Board ten days prior to a general meeting; the Board shall, within two days after receipt of such interim proposals, notify other Shareholders and submit such proposals to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration. The contents of the interim proposals shall be within the scope of the functions and powers of the shareholders' general meeting, and contain clear issues and specific matters for resolutions. Amended 2020/5/15

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 54)

Article 58 A shareholders' general meeting shall not resolve any matters which have not been specified in the notice under Article 56 and Article 57. Amended 2020/5/15

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 55)

Article 59 A notice of shareholders' general meeting shall satisfy the following requirements:

- (1) it shall be in writing;
- (2) it shall specify the place, the date and the time of the meeting;
- (3) it shall state the business to be transacted;
- (4) it shall provide the shareholders with all such information and explanations as are necessary for the making of an informed decision by the shareholders on the business to be transacted, which shall include the provision of concrete terms and contracts (if any) of the proposed transaction together with a detailed explanation of the causes and consequences thereof in the event the Company proposes a reorganization, including without limitation, merger, repurchase of its shares, restructuring of share capital or other manners of reorganization;
- (5) if any of the directors, supervisors, general managers and other senior managerial officers is materially interested in matters to be transacted, he shall disclose the nature and the extent of such interest; if the matters to be transacted have an effect on such directors, supervisors, general managers or senior managerial officers in the capacity of a shareholder which differs from other shareholders of the same class, such differences shall be specified;

- (6) it shall contain the full text of any special resolution proposed to be passed at the meeting;
- (7) it shall expressly specify in writing that the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the meeting shall have the right to appoint one or more than one proxy to attend the meeting in his stead and to vote thereat and the proxy or proxies need not be a shareholder;
- (8) it shall specify the time and place for the delivery of the relevant instrument for appointing proxy.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 56)

Article 60 Notice of shareholders' general meeting shall be served on all shareholders (whether or not such shares carry the right to vote at the shareholders' general meeting) by personal delivery or by prepaid air mail at the address recorded in the register of shareholders. In respect of holders of domestic invested shares, notice of shareholders' general meeting may also be served by way of public announcement. The announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or several newspapers designated by the securities supervisory authorities of the State Council. Once the announcement has been made, all holders of domestic invested shares shall be deemed to have received notice of the shareholders' meeting.

App.3
Amended
2020/5/15

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 57)

Article 61 Accidental omission to serve a notice on, or non-receipt of any such notice by, such person who is entitled to receive the same shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions passed at the meeting.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 58)

Article 62 Any shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' meeting shall have the right to appoint one or more persons (whether being a shareholder or not) as his proxies to attend and vote at such meeting on his behalf. Such proxy or proxies may exercise the following rights pursuant to the appointment made by the appointing shareholder:

- (1) the right of such shareholder to speak at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (2) to act on his own or join with other persons to demand for a poll;
- (3) to exercise the right to vote by a show of hands or by poll; however, if more than one proxy is appointed by a shareholder, such proxies shall only exercise the right to vote on a poll.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 59)

Article 63 A shareholder shall appoint his proxy in writing signed by the appointor or an attorney authorized by him for such purpose; if the appointor is a legal entity, the same shall be affixed with the seal of such legal entity, or signed by its directors or a duly authorized representative.

App.3
11(1)
11(2)

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 60)

Article 64 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at least 24 hours prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting at which the proxy is appointed to vote or 24 hours before the time appointed for voting at the registered address of the Company or such other place as the notice of meeting may specify. If the instrument appointing a proxy has been signed by a person authorized by the appointor, the power of attorney or other instruments of authorization shall be notarized. The power of attorney or other instruments of authorization so notarized together with the proxy form shall be deposited at the registered address of the Company or such other place as the notice of meeting may specify at the same time as the instrument appointing the proxy is so deposited.

In the event that the appointor is a legal person, such shareholder shall be represented at the shareholders' general meeting of the Company by its legal representative or the person authorized by its board of directors or other governing body of such appointor.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 61)

Article 65 The instrument delivered to a shareholder by the board of directors of the Company for appointing a proxy shall be in such form so as to enable the shareholder to instruct freely at his choice the proxy to vote in favor of or against any resolution and to give instruction on each item of the business put to vote at the meeting. Such instrument of proxy shall specify that if no instruction is given by the shareholder, the proxy may vote in the way as he thinks fit.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 62)

Article 66 Notwithstanding the death or incapacity of the appointor, or the revocation of the appointment or revocation of the authority under which the appointing instrument is signed, or the relevant shares have been transferred, a vote by such proxy pursuant to the instrument of appointment shall still be valid provided that no notice in writing in respect of the events mentioned above has been received by the Company prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 63)

Article 67 The proxy who attends the shareholders' general meeting on behalf of the shareholder shall produce his own personal identification.

If a corporate shareholder appoints a legal representative to attend the meeting, such representative shall produce his own personal identification and a copy of the resolution of the board of directors or other governing body of such corporate shareholder appointing such legal representative.

Article 68 Resolutions of shareholders' general meetings shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution of a shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than one half of the votes cast by the shareholders present in person or by proxy at the shareholders' general meeting.

A special resolution of a shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than two thirds of the votes cast by the shareholders present in person or by proxy at the shareholders' general meeting.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 64)

Article 69 A shareholder (including his proxy) may exercise voting rights at the shareholders' general meeting according to the number of shares which carry the right to vote held by him and each share shall have one vote.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 65)

Article 70 At any shareholders' general meeting a resolution shall be passed by a show of hands, subject to any requirement in the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, or unless a poll is demanded by the following persons (prior to or after a show of hands): Amended 2004/5/21

- (1) chairman of the meeting;
- (2) at least two shareholders or proxies having the right to vote;
- (3) a shareholder or shareholders (including proxy or proxies) representing 10% or more of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having the right to vote at such meeting.

Unless a poll is demanded, the declaration by the chairman of the meeting as to the result of the voting on a resolution by a show of hands and the entering of the same into the minutes book of the meeting shall be the conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of or against such resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person making such demand.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 66)

Article 71 If a poll is demanded for the election of the chairman or the adjournment of the meeting, such matters shall be resolved by poll immediately; in respect of a poll demanded for other matters, the time for such a poll shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and other business may be proceeded with at the meeting. The result of such a poll shall still be deemed as a resolution passed at the meeting.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 67)

Article 72 On a poll taken at a meeting, shareholders (including their proxies) who are entitled to two or more votes are not required to cast all their votes in favor of or against a resolution.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 68)

Article 73 In the event of equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 69)

Article 74 The following matters shall be passed by ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) the working reports of the board of directors and the supervisory committee;
- (2) plans for profit distribution and for making up of losses prepared by the board of directors;
- (3) appointment and removal of the members of the board of directors and the members of the supervisory committee and their remuneration and method of payment;
- (4) annual budget, statement of final accounts, balance sheet, profit and loss statement and other financial statements of the Company;

- (5) other matters except those required by law, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association to be passed by special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 70)

Article 75 The following matters shall be passed by special resolution at the shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) an increase or reduction of the share capital of the Company, or issue of any class of shares, warrants and other similar securities;
- (2) an issue of debentures by the Company;
- (3) the merger, division, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (4) amendments to these Articles of Association;
- (5) other matters which are resolved by ordinary resolutions in shareholders' general meeting to be of material effect to the Company, which are to be passed by special resolutions.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 71)

Article 76 Shareholders who request to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class shareholders' meeting shall follow the procedures set out below:

- (1) two or more shareholders who in aggregate hold 10% or more of the voting rights of all the shares having the right to vote in such a meeting may sign one or several written requisitions in the same form requesting the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class shareholders' meeting, and the subject matter of the meeting shall be specified.

upon receipt of the said written requisitions, the board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class shareholders' meeting as soon as possible. The calculation of the number of shares held as aforesaid shall be made as at the date of the written requisitions.

- (2) if the board of directors fails to give notice of meeting within 30 days of the receipt of the aforesaid written requisitions, the shareholders making such requests may convene a meeting within four months of the receipt of the said requisitions by the board of directors. The procedure for convening the meeting shall, as far as possible, be the same as those for convening a shareholders' meeting by the board of directors.

The Company shall be liable to pay all reasonable compensation for the expenses incurred in convening and holding a meeting by the shareholders as a result of the failure of the board of directors to convene such meeting upon the aforesaid requisitions and such compensation shall be deducted from any payment payable to the directors who are in default of their duties.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 72)

Article 77 A shareholders' general meeting shall be convened and presided by the chairman of the board of directors. If the chairman of the board of directors cannot attend the meeting, the vice-chairman shall convene and take the chair of the meeting; if both the chairman and the vice-chairman cannot attend the meeting, the board of directors may designate a director of the Company to convene and take the chair of the meeting; if no chairman of the meeting has been so designated, the shareholders present may choose one person to be chairman of the meeting. If for any reason the shareholders fail to elect a chairman, the shareholder present in person or by proxy in the meeting and holding the largest number of shares which carry the right to vote shall be the chairman of the meeting.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 73)

Article 78 The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a resolution of the shareholders' general meeting is passed and his determination shall be final and the same shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 74)

Article 79 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of voting on any resolution, he may have the votes counted. If the chairman of the meeting does not make a count of such votes, any shareholder present in person or by proxy at the meeting who disputes the result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to request a count of the votes immediately after the declaration of the result and the chairman of the meeting shall forthwith proceed with such counting.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 75)

Article 80 In the event a count of the votes has been made at a shareholders' general meeting, the result thereof shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The minutes of the meeting and summary of the meeting, together with the signature book of the shareholders attending the meeting shall be kept at the legal address of the Company.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 76)

Article 81 A shareholder shall be entitled to inspect copies of the minutes of meeting(s) free of charge during office hours of the Company. Upon the request of any shareholder for a copy of the relevant minutes of meeting, the Company shall send out the copy of the minutes so requested within seven days of the receipt of reasonable payment therefor.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 77)

Article 81A Where any shareholder of the Company is, under the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Chapter 9 Special Procedures for the Voting by Class Shareholders

Article 82 Shareholders holding different classes of shares shall be classified as class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and undertake obligations according to laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 78)

Article 83 If the Company proposes to vary or revoke the rights of the class shareholders, the same can only be implemented after it has been passed by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting and also by the class shareholders so affected at the shareholders' meetings respectively convened in accordance with Articles 85 to 89 of these Articles of Association.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 79)

Article 84 The following situations shall be considered as a variation or abrogation of the rights of a certain class of shareholders:

- (1) the increase or reduction of the number of shares of that class of shares or the increase or reduction of the number of shares in another class which carry the same or more right to vote, right of distribution or other privileges;
- (2) the conversion of all or part of the shares of that class to another class, or the conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into the shares of that class or the granting of such right of conversion;
- (3) the cancellation or reduction of the rights of that class of shares to receive dividends declared or accrued;
- (4) the reduction or cancellation of the preferential rights of that class of shares to receive dividends or to receive distribution of assets upon the liquidation of the Company;
- (5) the increase, cancellation or reduction of the share conversion rights, options rights, voting rights, rights of transfer, preemptive rights and rights to acquire the securities of the Company of that class of shares;
- (6) the cancellation or reduction of the rights of that class of shares to receive payment payable by the Company in a particular currency;
- (7) to create a new class of shares which enjoys the same or more voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges than those enjoyed by that class of shares;
- (8) to restrict or increase the restriction on the transfer or ownership of that class of shares;
- (9) the granting of subscription rights or conversion rights in respect of that class or another class of shares;
- (10) the increase of the rights and privileges of another class of shares;
- (11) the reorganization of the Company as a result of which different classes of shareholders assume obligations otherwise than in proportion;
- (12) the amendment or abrogation of the provisions in this Chapter.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 80)

Article 85 Whether or not the class shareholders so affected have voting rights at the shareholders' general meeting, they shall have the right to vote at the meeting of class shareholders in respect of the matters mentioned in paragraphs (2) to (8) and (11) to (12) of Article 84 of these Articles of Association provided that interested shareholders shall not have the right to vote at the meeting of the class shareholders.

An interested shareholder mentioned in the preceding paragraph refers to:

- (1) in the case where the Company makes a repurchase offer to all shareholders in a proportionate manner in accordance with the provisions of Article 28 of these Articles of Association or repurchases its shares on a stock exchange through public dealing on a stock exchange, “interested shareholder” shall mean the controlling shareholder as defined in Article 51 of these Articles of Association;
- (2) in the case where the Company repurchases its shares by way of agreement other than through a stock exchange in accordance with the provisions of Article 28 of these Articles of Association, “interested shareholder” shall mean the holder of the relevant shares;
- (3) in the reorganization of the Company, “interested shareholder” shall mean a shareholder who undertakes obligations to a lesser extent than other shareholders of the same class, or a shareholder who enjoys benefits which are different from those enjoyed by other shareholders of the same class.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 81)

Article 86 A resolution of the meeting of class shareholders shall be passed in accordance with Article 85 by more than two-thirds of the voting rights of the class shareholders present and having the right to vote in the meeting.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 82)

Article 87 Notice period of a class meeting shall be the same as that of a non-class meeting to be convened together with such class meeting. The written notice shall inform all shareholders of such class whose names appear on the register of shareholders of the matters to be considered at the meeting as well as the time and place of the meeting.

Amended
2020/5/15

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 83)

Article 88 Notice of the meeting of class shareholders need only be served on the shareholders who are entitled to vote at such meeting.

The procedures of the meeting of class shareholders shall follow as much as possible the procedures of a shareholders’ general meeting and the provisions in these Articles of Association relating to the procedures of a shareholders’ general meeting shall apply to the meeting of class shareholders.

The resolutions in relation to the matters mentioned in paragraphs (6), (7), (11) and (12) above shall be passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the directors, the resolutions in relation to other matters shall be passed by a simple majority of the directors.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 88)

Article 93 The board of directors shall not, without the prior approval of shareholders in general meeting, dispose or agree to dispose of any fixed assets of the Company where the aggregate value of the estimated consideration for the proposed disposition and the value of the consideration for any such disposition of any fixed assets of the Company that has been completed in a period of four months immediately preceding the proposed disposition exceeds 33% of the value of the Company's fixed assets as shown in the balance sheet which has been considered in the most recent general meeting.

The validity of a disposition by the Company shall not be affected by the breach of the first paragraph of this Article.

For the purposes of this Article, disposition includes an act of transferring certain interests in the assets other than by way of provision of security.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 89)

Article 94 The board of directors shall perform its duties in accordance with the laws, regulations, relevant policies of the State and these Articles of Association and resolutions of the shareholders in general meetings.

Article 95 The chairman of the board of directors shall exercise the following powers:

- (1) to preside over the shareholders' general meetings and to convene and preside over the meetings of the board of directors;
- (2) to review the implementation of the resolutions of the board of directors;
- (3) to sign share certificates and debentures of the Company;
- (4) other powers conferred by the board of directors.

If the chairman of the board of directors is unable to perform his duties, the vice-chairman designated by the chairman shall perform the duties on his behalf.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 90)

Article 96 Meetings of the board of directors shall be held at least twice a year and shall be convened by the chairman of the board of directors and notice of meeting shall be served on all directors 10 days prior to the meeting. In case of urgent matters, an extraordinary meeting of the board of directors may be convened upon requisition by one-third or more of the directors of the Company or by the general manager.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 91)

Article 97 The board meeting and extraordinary board meeting shall be notified in the following manner:

- (1) if the time and place of the regular meetings of the board of directors have been fixed by the board of directors in advance, no notice to convene the same has to be given.
- (2) if the time and place of the board meeting has not been fixed in advance by the board of directors, the chairman shall notify the directors of the time and place of the meeting of the board of directors not less than 10 days and not more than 30 days before the meeting by way of telex, telegram, facsimile, express courier or registered mail or by hand.
- (3) notices shall be written in Chinese and if necessary can be in English. Such notices shall include the agenda of the meeting. Any director may waive the right to receive notices of board meetings.
- (4) notice of a meeting shall be deemed to have been served on any director who attends the meeting and who has not disputed the receipt of such notice before or at the commencement of the meeting.
- (5) regular meeting or extraordinary board meetings can be held by telephone conference or similar communication equipment. So long as the directors participating in the meeting can clearly hear and communicate with the other directors, such directors shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 92)

Article 98 Meetings of the board of directors shall only be held if half or more of the directors are present at the meeting. Each director shall have one vote. The resolutions of the board of directors shall be passed by a simple majority of the directors. In the event of equality of votes in favor of or against a resolution, the chairman of the board of directors shall have a casting vote.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 93)

Article 99 Meeting of the board of directors shall be attended by the directors in person. If any director is unable to attend a meeting for whatever reason, he may appoint another director by a written power of attorney to attend the meeting of the board of directors on his behalf. The power of attorney shall set out the scope of authority.

A director appointed to attend the meeting on behalf of another director shall exercise the rights of a director within his scope of authority. If a director is unable to attend a meeting of the board of directors and has not appointed a representative to attend the meeting on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have waived his rights to vote at that meeting.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 94)

Article 100 The board of directors shall cause the matters resolved at the meeting to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. The directors present at the meeting and the person recording the minutes shall sign on such minutes. The directors are liable for the resolutions passed at the meeting of the board of directors. If a resolution of the board of directors contravenes the laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association as a result of which the Company sustains substantial losses, the directors participating in the passing of such resolutions shall be liable to compensate the Company provided that if it can be proved that a director expressly objected to the resolution when the resolution was put to vote and that such objection was recorded in the minutes of the meeting, such director may be exempted from such liability.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 95)

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 112)

Article 119 The validity of an act of a director, general manager and other officer of the Company acting on behalf of the Company vis-a-vis a bona fide third party shall not be affected by the irregularities in the appointment, election or qualification of such person.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 113)

Article 120 In exercising his rights or discharging his duties, the director, supervisor, general manager and other officer owes a duty to exercise the care, diligence and skill of a reasonable and prudent person acting under similar circumstances.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 115)

Article 121 In discharging his duties, a director, supervisor, general manager and other officer of the Company shall observe the fiduciary principle and shall not put himself in a position where his personal interests and his duties may conflict. Such principle shall include but not be limited to, the undertaking of the following obligations:

- (1) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) to exercise powers within, and not to exceed the scope of, his authority;
- (3) to exercise the discretionary power vested in him personally and not allow himself to act under the direction of another person and, unless and to the extent permitted by law or administrative regulations or the informed consent of the shareholders given in general meeting, not to delegate the exercise of his discretion;

- (4) to treat the shareholders of the same class equally and to treat the shareholders of different classes fairly;
- (5) unless otherwise provided herein or with the informed consent of the shareholders given in general meeting, not to enter into contracts, transactions or arrangements with the Company;
- (6) without the informed consent of the shareholders given in general meeting, not to use the property of the Company in any manner for his own benefit;
- (7) not to exploit his position to accept bribes or other unlawful income and not to deprive the Company of its property in any manner, including, but not limited to, to usurp the opportunities beneficial to the Company;
- (8) without the informed consent of the shareholders given in general meeting, not to accept any commission in connection with the transactions of the Company;
- (9) to abide by these Articles of Association, to perform his duties faithfully, to protect the interests of the Company, and not to pursue personal benefits by exploiting his position and authority in the Company;
- (10) without the informed consent of the shareholders given in general meeting, not to compete in any way with the Company;
- (11) not to misappropriate the funds of the Company or to lend the funds of the Company to others; not to deposit the assets of the Company in the accounts opened under his own name or the name of other persons; not to use the assets of the Company as security for the liabilities of the shareholders of the Company or any other persons;
- (12) without the informed consent of the shareholders given in general meeting, not to disclose any confidential information of the Company acquired during his term of office, provided that such information may be disclosed to a court of law or other governmental authorities under the following situations:
  - (a) disclosure is required by law;
  - (b) disclosure is required in the public interest;
  - (c) disclosure is required in the interests of such director, supervisor, general manager and other officer.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 116)

Article 122 In addition to the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of any stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed, a director, supervisor, general manager and other officer of the Company shall owe a duty to each shareholder in respect of the following obligations in the exercise of the powers entrusted to him by the Company:

- (1) not to cause the Company to exceed the scope of business stipulated in its business license;
- (2) to act faithfully in the best interests of the Company;

- (1) the spouse or the minor children of the director, supervisor, general manager and other officers;
- (2) a trustee of the director, supervisor, general manager and other officers or of the persons mentioned in paragraph (1) of this Article;
- (3) a partner of the director, supervisor, general manager and other officers or of the persons mentioned in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article;
- (4) companies actually and solely controlled by the director, supervisor, general manager and other officers, or companies actually and jointly controlled by the persons referred to in paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this Article or the director, supervisor, general manager, and other officers of the Company;
- (5) the director, supervisor, general manager and other officers of the Company being controlled as mentioned in paragraph (4) of this Article.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 117)

Article 124 The fiduciary duties of a director, supervisor, general manager and other officer of the Company do not necessarily cease upon the expiry of his term of office. The obligations to keep the trade secrets of the Company confidential shall survive the expiry of his term of office. The continuance of other obligations shall be determined on a fair basis depending on the length of the time between its occurrence and his departure from office and the circumstances and the conditions under which his relation with the Company was terminated.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 118)

Article 125 The liability of a director, supervisor, general manager and other officers of the Company in respect of the breach of certain substantive obligations may be discharged with the informed consent by the shareholders given in general meeting except for the circumstances provided for in Article 50 of these Articles of Association.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 119)

Article 126 In the event that a director, supervisor, general manager and other officers of the Company are interested materially, directly or indirectly, in a contract, transaction or arrangement made or proposed to be made with the Company (except for the service contract of the director, supervisor, general manager and other officers with the Company), he shall disclose to the board of directors the nature and extent of his interest at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the relevant matters are subject to the approval by the board of directors in normal circumstances.

App.3

Amended
2004/5/21

Unless the director, supervisor, general manager and other officers of the Company so interested has disclosed such interest to the board of directors as required in this Article and the board of directors has approved the same in a meeting in which he has not been counted in the quorum and has refrained from voting, the Company shall have the right to revoke such contract, transaction or arrangement except as against a bona fide party without notice of the breach of the duty by the director, supervisor, general manager and other officers concerned.

If any connected person or any associate (as defined under the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited) ("Associate") of a director, supervisor, general manager or other officers of the Company is interested in certain contracts, transactions or arrangements, such director, supervisor, general manager or officers shall also be deemed as interested in the same.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 120)

Article 127 If, before the Company first considers the entering into of the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement, a director, supervisor, general manager and other officer of the Company gives written notice to the board of directors, stating that by reasons of the facts contained in the notice, he, or any of his Associates, is interested in such contract, transaction or arrangement to be entered into by the Company subsequently, such director, supervisor, general manager and other officers shall be deemed to have made such disclosure as stipulated in the preceding Article of this Chapter to the extent as stated in the notice.

Amended
2004/5/21

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 121)

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 122)

Article 129 No loans, guarantees for loans or other payments shall be provided, directly or indirectly, by the Company to a director, supervisor, general manager and other officers of the Company or of its parent company, nor shall such loans or guarantee for loans or payments be provided to the connected persons of the above-mentioned persons.

The provisions as aforesaid shall not apply to the following situations:

- (1) the Company provides loans or guarantee for loans to its subsidiaries;
- (2) the Company provides to a director, supervisor, general manager or other officers under an employment contract approved by the general meeting of a loan or guarantee for a loan or other funds to meet expenditure incurred by him for the purposes of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to perform his duties;

- (3) if the ordinary course of business of the Company includes the provision of loans and guarantees for loans, the Company may provide loans or guarantees for loans to the relevant director, supervisor, general manager and other officers and their connected persons provided that the terms of such loans or guarantees for loans should be on normal commercial terms.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 123)

Article 130 If the provision of a loan made by the Company is in breach of the provisions of the preceding Article, the recipient of the loan should repay the same forthwith regardless of the terms of such loan.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 124)

Article 131 Guarantees for loans provided by the Company in breach of the provisions of paragraph 1 of Article 129 of these Articles of Association shall be unenforceable against the Company except under the following situations:

- (1) at the time when the loans were made to the connected persons of the director, supervisor, general manager and other officers of the Company or those of its parent company, the lender has no knowledge of the circumstances;
- (2) the security provided by the Company has been legally sold by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 125)

Article 132 The guarantee referred to in the preceding Article shall include the assumption of obligations by the guarantor or the provision of property to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 126)

Article 133 Where a director, supervisor, general manager or other officer of the Company is in breach of his obligations to the Company, the Company shall apart from the various rights and remedies provided by laws and administrative regulations be entitled to take the following measures:

Amended

- (1) to demand the relevant director, supervisor, general manager or officer pay damages for the losses sustained by the Company as a result of the dereliction of duties on his part;
- (2) to revoke any contract or transaction made between the Company and the relevant director, supervisor, general manager or officer, or any Associate of such persons, and a contract or transaction made between the Company and a third party (if such third party knows or should have known that the director, supervisor, general manager or officer representing the Company are in breach of the obligations to the Company);
- (3) to demand the relevant director, supervisor, general manager or officer account for the profits received by him as a result of the breach of the obligations;
- (4) to recover from the relevant director, supervisor, general manager or officer the monies which should have been received by the Company including, but not limited to, commission received by them;

- (5) to demand the relevant director, supervisor or officer return the interest earned or that may be earned from the monies which should have been payable to the Company;
- (6) through legal proceedings, to demand a verdict that the properties which the relevant director, supervisor or officer received as a result of the breach of the obligations shall be the properties of the Company.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 127)

Article 134 The Company shall enter into a contract in writing with directors and supervisors of the Company in respect of remuneration, with the prior approval of the shareholders in general meeting. The remuneration matters as aforesaid shall include:

- (1) the remuneration for acting as a director, supervisor or other officer of the Company;
- (2) the remuneration for acting as a director, supervisor or other officer of a subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) the remuneration for the provision of other services in the management of the Company or its subsidiaries; and
- (4) the payment for compensation for loss of office or retirement of such directors and supervisors.

Except pursuant to the contract as aforesaid, no legal proceedings shall be instituted by a director or supervisor in respect of the benefits receivable by him in respect of the aforesaid matters.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 128)

Article 135 There shall be a provision in the contract in relation to remuneration made between the Company and a director or supervisor of the Company that the director or the supervisor of the Company shall be entitled to the compensation or other payments as a result of loss of office or retirement when the Company is to be taken over, provided that prior approval shall have been obtained at a shareholders' general meeting. A takeover of the Company referred to above shall mean one of the following situations:

- (1) a takeover offer to all shareholders has been made by any person;
- (2) a takeover offer has been made by any person to enable the offeror to become the controlling shareholder. The meaning of "controlling shareholder" is the same as that defined in Article 51 of these Articles of Association.

In the event that the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with the provisions of this Article, any monies received by him shall belong to the persons who sold their shares as a result of the offer made and the expenses incurred as a result of pro rata distribution of such monies shall be borne by such director or supervisor and such expenses shall not be deducted from such monies.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 129)

Chapter 15 Financial Accounting System and Distribution of Profits

Chapter 16 Appointment of Accounting Firm

Article 158 The Company shall appoint an independent accounting firm which is qualified according to the relevant requirements of the State for the purpose of auditing the annual financial report and reviewing other financial reports of the Company.

The first accounting firm of the Company may be appointed by the inaugural meeting of the Company before the first annual general meeting and the accounting firm so appointed shall hold office until the conclusion of the first annual general meeting.

If the inaugural meeting fails to exercise its powers under the preceding paragraph, those powers shall be exercised by the board of directors.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 141)

Article 159 The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall hold office from the conclusion of the last annual general meeting until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 142)

Article 160 The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall have the following rights:

- (1) to inspect the books and accounts, records or evidence of the Company at any time and to require directors, managers or other officers of the Company to provide the relevant information and explanation;
- (2) to require the Company to take all reasonable steps to obtain from its subsidiaries information and explanation which are necessary for such accounting firm to carry out its duties;
- (3) to attend meetings of shareholders and receive notice of meeting and other information related to such meeting which any shareholder is entitled to receive and speak at any meeting of shareholders about the matters related to its being the accounting firm of the Company.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 143)

Article 161 If the office of the accounting firm becomes vacant, the board of directors shall, before convening of the general meeting, have the right to appoint an accounting firm to fill such vacancy provided that if there is another accounting firm in office for the Company during the period of such vacancy, such accounting firm may act.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 144)

Article 162 The shareholders in general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove an accounting firm prior to the expiration of its term of office notwithstanding anything contained in the contract entered into between the accounting firm and the Company but without prejudice to the right of the accounting firm to claim damages against the Company for such removal.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 145)

Article 163 The remuneration or the manner in which such remuneration shall be determined shall be decided by the shareholders in general meeting. The remuneration of the accounting firm appointed by the board of directors shall be determined by the board of directors.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 146)

Article 164 The decisions of the Company to appoint, dismiss or not to re-appoint an accounting firm shall be made by the shareholders in general meeting and shall be put on file with the securities supervisory authorities of the State Council.

Where a resolution is proposed to be passed at a shareholders' general meeting to appoint a firm other than an incumbent accounting firm to fill any vacant office of an accounting firm, or to re-appoint an accounting firm who has been appointed by the board of directors to fill a vacancy, or to remove an accounting firm before the expiration of its term of office, the following provisions should apply:

App.13D
(e)(i)

- (1) a copy of the resolution relating to the appointment and vacation of office shall be sent to the accounting firm proposed to be appointed or the accounting firm which intends to vacate its office or the accounting firm who has vacated from its office in the relevant accounting year, before the notice of meeting of the shareholders' general meeting is served on the shareholders (vacating office includes leaving by removal, resignation and retirement).

- (2) if the accounting firm which is vacating its office makes a representation in writing and requests the Company to notify the shareholders of that representation, the Company should, unless the written representation is received beyond the deadline, take the following measures:
  - (a) in any notice of the resolution given to the shareholders, state the fact of the representation having been made;
  - (b) send a copy of the representation to the shareholders who are entitled to receive notice of general meetings.
- (3) if the Company does not send the representations of the relevant accounting firm under paragraph (2) of this Article, such accounting firm may require that the representation be read out at the meeting of shareholders and may make further statements.
- (4) an accounting firm which is vacating its office shall be entitled to attend the following meeting:
  - (a) the general meeting at which its term of office would otherwise have expired;
  - (b) the general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal; and
  - (c) the general meeting convened due to its resignation.

The accounting firm vacating its office shall be entitled to receive all notices or other relevant information of the said meetings, and speak at the said meetings in respect of the affairs in which it is involved as a former accounting firm of the Company.

(Mandatory Provisions: Article 147)

Article 165 When the Company dismisses or does not re-appoint an accounting firm, it shall give advance notice to the accounting firm. The accounting firm shall have the right to make representations at the general meeting. Where the accounting firm resigns, it shall state in the general meeting whether or not there are irregularities in the Company.

An accounting firm may resign by depositing a written notice of resignation at the registered address of the Company. The notice shall be effective on the date when the notice is deposited at the registered address of the Company or a later date specified in the notice. Such notice shall contain the following statements:

App.13D
(e)(ii)

- (a) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
- (b) a statement of any such circumstances.

When the Company receives the notice referred to in the aforesaid Article, it shall within 14 days send a copy of the notice to the supervisory authorities. If the notice contains the statement mentioned in (b) of the aforesaid Article, a copy of the notice shall be kept by the Company at the registered address of the Company for the inspection by the shareholders. The Company shall also send a copy of the aforesaid representation to each holder of the overseas listed foreign invested shares by prepaid post. The address of the recipient shall be as recorded in the register of shareholders.

(e)(iii)

When the notice of resignation of the accounting firm contains a statement described in aforesaid paragraph (b), the accounting firm may require the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of hearing its explanation of the circumstances in connection with its resignation.
